From the Office

Resignation of Student Ministries Director: Nate Smith has stepped down from his position.

Bulletin announcements and other church office communication should be brought directly in the secretary's office to ensure items are not lost. There is a mail slot next to Secretary's office door. Office is located on North side of building, down the hall from the church library.

Operation Christmas Child Shoeboxes may be months away but it is a great time to pick up clearance items. If you don't want to store items at your home bring them to Room #7 in the Education Building. You will find a tote marked "shoe box stuff."

Graduating from college or trade school? Please contact Brianna Kingsbury with all the details. We would like to congratulate you in the church bulletin.

Church mailbox: If you would like your own mailbox in back of church, please notify Brianna Kingsbury.

The magazine racks on the wall in back of church are full of interesting & informative magazines. Feel free to take any of them home.
